CHANDIGARH: Music, mantra, and meditation combined to give energy to the Divine Journey programme of the US magazine "Tathaastu: So Be It" on Sunday at Tagore Theatre in Sector 18.

The magazine will give away the 'Be The Change' awards to selfless heroes who have served the community in Chandigarh. It has invited people to log on to www.tathaastumag.com to drop the names of people they want to nominate for the award.

Chamunda Swami, spiritual healer living in New York, US, delivered a motivational address at the Divine Journey programme on Sunday. Bhajan singer Anup Jalota performed live on the occasion to create a befitting ambience.

Annu Kapoor, television host and actor, will anchor the event where the magazine will give away the awards
