Divine Journey

In Association with World Spiritual Awareness Foundation

December 26, 2010, Chandigarh

Tathaastu: So Be It has been organizing the Divine Journey program series in India. Focusing on Music, Mantra and Meditation, the program is led by the legendary bhajan singer Anup Jalota and renowned spiritual healer H.H. Shri Chamunda Swamiji. The final event of 2010 was held on December 26th at the Tagore Theatre in Chandigarh to a packed auditorium and illustrious dignitaries. These included: Capt. Ajay Singh Yadav (Finance Minister of Haryana), Master Mohan Lal (Transport Minister of Punjab), K. K. Khandelwal (Addl. Principal Secretary to Chief Minister, Haryana), Anu Chatrath (Mayor of Chandigarh), and many leading justices and judges. The renowned TV host and actor Annu Kapoor was the 'sutradhaar'.

The program was supported by leading groups including: Unitech, Hindustan Times, Dainik Bhaskar, Taj Hotels, PC Jewellers, TruMilk, Koutons, Shivangi Group, Dish TV, MYFM, 160by2.com.

An integral part of Divine Journey is the Tathaastu 'Be The Change' Awards. Awarded to people in the community for their phenomenal achievements and devotion to public causes, these awards highlight the core fundamentals of "selfless giving" to society and its people. These were awarded to Reeta Sharma and Lt. Gen. (Retd.) J. L. Malhotra at the Chandigarh event.
