

Divine Journey

Celebrate Music, Mantra & Meditation

May 7, 2011

Ludhiana, Punjab

Soulful music. Divine chanting. Blissful meditation. Music, Mantra and Meditation came together in a beautiful blend of harmony and healing in Tathaastu's Divine Journey program series. The audience of a 1000 plus people was mesmerized at the Divine Journey program held in Ludhiana at Guru Nanak Bhavan on Saturday, May 7th. Organized by Shree Geeta Mandir (Shani Dham), Tathaastu: So Be It, the leading international spiritual and holistic lifestyle magazine, and supported by Bal Vikas Trust, this program received a fantastic response. Led by the legendary bhajan singer Shri Anup Jalota and spiritual healer H.H. Shri Chamunda Swamiji from the United States, the event's focus was on nurturing the mind with spiritual insight for a calmer and a more nourishing world.

Anup Jalota opened the program with Shani bhajan. He had the audience spellbound with his soul-stirring music. There was divine fluidity between Anup Jalota's music and H. H. Shri Chamunda Swamiji's inspirational chanting and spiritual advice. With his deep insight and wisdom, H.H. Shri Chamunda Swamiji offered guidance for a more holistic life. Swamiji chanted new, powerful mantras that resonated with the attendees. Many attendees said that they felt truly blessed to be in his presence and by his blissful demeanor.
